Description :

PDF-f4a7f | In 1868, the state of Georgia began to make its rapidly growing population of prisoners available for hire. The resulting convict leasing system ensnared not only men but also African American women, who were forced to labor in camps and factories to make profits for private investors. In this vivid work of history, Talitha L. LeFlouria draws from a rich array of primary sources to piece together ... Chained in Silence: Black Women and Convict Labor in the New South (Justice, Power, and Politics)
